

Interview #1 (T. Cao)

1 - Do you study with other people?

Yes.

1.1 - If yes, how often?

Every day, depending on the course.

1.2 - How do you find a time to get together with other people?

Through texting.

1.3 - Do you use any tools to organize your schedule?

Uses messenger and other scheduling apps (paid).

1.4 - Where do you usually like to study with other people?

Huskayne (SH).

1.5 - Do you have a spot you would prefer to study in?

TFDL or SH.

2 - Are you or have you taken classes which have mandatory group project components?

Yes.

2.1 - If yes, do you find it difficult to arrange for meetings with your group members?

Yes, especially after second year.

3 - Would you be motivated to go to a crash course/study session led by a TA or professor outside of regularly scheduled class time?

Yes.

3.1 - Have you ever been to one in the past?

Yes.

3.2 - Why/why not?

Sometimes TAs (instructors) teach better than professors.

4 - Have you ever used a booked room for studying?

Yes.

4.1 - Do you find TFDL workrooms useful?

Yes, but it's hard to book one due to high demand.

#Potential implementation: Students should be able to book other workrooms besides the ones at TFDL

4.2 - Would you find it useful to be able to schedule a time and book a room through a single service?

Yes.

Interview #2 (R. Torres)

1 - Do you study with other people?

Yes

1.1 - If yes, how often?

At least three times a week.

1.2 - How do you find a time to get together with other people?

Through text, messenger and Facebook.

1.3 - Do you use any tools to organize your schedule?

Virtual and physical Calendars.

1.4 - Where do you usually like to study with other people?

TFDL workrooms.

1.5 - Do you have a spot you would prefer to study in?

Anywhere quiet .

Potential feature: add more options for booking a workrooms besides the ones at TFDL

2 - Are you or have you taken classes which have mandatory group project components?

Yes.

2.1 - If yes, do you find it difficult to arrange for meetings with your group members?

Yes, to a certain extent. It's hard to coordinate. Unsure as to what app to use to schedule a meeting.

3 - Would you be motivated to go to a crash course/study session led by a TA or professor outside of regularly scheduled class time?

Yes.

3.1 - Have you ever been to one in the past?

Yes.

3.2 - Why/why not?

Wants to do well in classes.

4 - Have you ever used a booked room for studying?

Yes.

4.1 - Do you find TFDL workrooms useful?

Yes .

4.2 - Would you find it useful to be able to schedule a time and book a room through a single service?

Yes.

Interview #3 (A. Luu)

1 - Do you study with other people?

Yes.

1.1 - If yes, how often?

Two or Three times a week.

1.2 - How do you find a time to get together with other people?

Through Facebook & emails.

1.3 - Do you use any tools to organize your schedule?

Virtual Calendars.

1.4 - Where do you usually like to study with other people?

TFDL, Doucette.

1.5 - Do you have a spot you would prefer to study in?

206A ST alone, TFDL (with people).

2 - Are you or have you taken classes which have mandatory group project components?

Yes.

2.1 - If yes, do you find it difficult to arrange for meetings with your group members?

No.

2.1.1 - If no, why not?

There is a designated planner who arranges meetings.

3 - Would you be motivated to go to a crash course/study session led by a TA or professor outside of regularly scheduled class time?

Yes.

3.1 - Have you ever been to one in the past?

Yes.

3.2 - Why/why not?

GPA is important.

4 - Have you ever used a booked room for studying?

Yes.

4.1 - Do you find TFDL workrooms useful?

Yes.

4.2 - Would you find it useful to be able to schedule a time and book a room through a single service?

Yes.